

4th Annual JC Music Solo Competitions

*In Memory of this competitions Co-founder,
Yale School Of Music's John Miller

2013 Dates

The 4th Annual JC Music solo competitions will include one competition for students in grades 5-8 and a second competition for students in grades 9-12.

JC Music has been bringing solo competitions to the state of Connecticut for the past four years and these competitions differ from the standard CMEA Regional and All State auditions. JC Music's president, JC Caillouette and Yale School of Music's John Miller began these competitions as the JC Music/Yale School of Music solo Competition. The passing of John Miller was a huge loss to the music community throughout the state, but John helped to set a strong foundation for these competitions and we are continuing them in his memory.

The JC Music Solo Competition auditions for 2013 will include strings, brass, woodwinds, percussion and piano.

Preliminary Auditions –Preliminary Auditions will be held at JC Music in Meriden on Friday October 18th and Saturday October 19th 2013. Students will receive their audition times by October 10th. The judges for the audition will be CMEA certified adjudicators.

Finals – The top 7 scores from the preliminary auditions for both competitions will re-audition in the finals. The finals will be held on November 2nd, 2013 at 9:30 A.M. on stage at the Augusta Curtis Cultural Center in Meriden. Winners will be announced at the end of the performances. There are cash prizes for the winners and runner-ups. There will also be a performing opportunity for the winners later in the school year.

We will have our usual all-star panel of judges from around the state for the final auditions. The judges have not yet been determined, but there will be three judges for the competition finals.

The competition will be video taped and each of the finalist's auditions will have their performances released on YouTube. The prize-winning performances will also be posted on JC-Music.com.
